

Please keep the Wisconsin No-Call list as is. When a consumer severs ties with a company it is generally because they are dissatisfied with the service and/or product supplied by the company. To permit such a company to call after the consumer severed ties is ludicrous.

Thank you!